Get Away From It All

Finally you've found your little piece of heaven - that special property to escape from the pressures of work, deadlines and mounting commitments. Look to Lake Country for your ideal get-away cottage. The eye-catching Calico features a spacious loft, windows to let in an ample amount of natural light, along with plenty of room on the main floor for you to relax and unwind.

Time out! This exquisite 720 square foot log cottage features a bright, spacious 240 square foot loft that opens to the 480 square foot main floor below. With private bath, full kitchen, large living/dining area and separate bedroom, the efficiently designed main floor will comfortably accommodate your family and guests, while providing you with a separate, private space above and away from all the action.
